DUNCAN JORDAN'S FATE IN THE HANDS OF JURY

Three Sessions of Court Held Yesterday, and Case
Given to Jury at 9:50 O'Clock Last Night.

Circuit Court was called to order at 8:30 Wednesday morning. Judge Wills on the bench.

Sheriff Ramsey made the following return of the special venire of thirty from which to select a jury of twelve to try the case of the State vs. Duncan Jordan, charged with the murder of Geo. L. Bryant, marshal of High Springs:

H. G. Kennard, W. S. McDowell, E. Baird, J. B. Brooks, C. M. Dell, O. B. Bailey, N. R. Carter, C. Y. Crawford, C. V. McKinstry, John Howard, James Guinn, P. Dampier, Rube Hague, L. C. Hague, T. E. Brown, R. C. Small, J. H. Standley, S. B. Cullen, L. V. Polk, J. A. Williams, S. J. Ellis, Rufus Dell, R. A. Caswell, W. M. Thomas, J. S. Goode, J. A. Beal, B. P. Beville, L. C. Ellis, D. A. Robertson, A. W. Taylor.

Messrs. Kennard, Crawford, McKinstry, Dampier and L. C. Ellis were excused by the court.

The work of empanelling the jury was then begun. Nine of the regular panel qualified. The panel was frequently completed by twelve men taking their seats in the box, but challenges by both sides necessitated the calling of additional veniremen until the special venire was exhausted with only eleven jurors in the box. At this time the defense had exhausted its ten challenges, while the State had three of its ten challenges left.

The court then ordered the sheriff to summon ten additional veniremen from the body of the county, returnable instantly. Return of this venire was not forthcoming up to the noon hour and court adjourned until 2 o'clock.

Afternoon Session.

When court was called to order at 2 o'clock Sheriff Ramsey made the following return of the special venire of ten:

J. S. Broome, W. M. Pepper, W. S. Dorsey, E. Baird, W. H. Tison, F. T. Douglass, F. T. McCormick, S. M. Davis, J. L. Chesser.

The jury was finally completed and sworn as follows, both the State and defense having exhausted all peremptory challenges:

W. S. Turner, W. R. Smith, T. J. McKinney, John Howard, Rube Hague,

L. C. Hague, D. A. Robertson, A. W. Taylor, J. S. Broome, W. M. Pepper, C. I. Baird, C. J. Mixson.

Miss Lois Hale, official court stenographer, was called upon to take down the evidence.

The First Witness.

F. W. Dodge was sworn for the State. Witness on December 3, 1908, let Mr. Bryant, the murdered man, have a buggy to send Duncan Jordan home in. Considerable time lapsed and witness and Bryant went to see why Jordan had kept the team so long. As they got near Jordan's home they saw the negro boy who had driven Jordan home running from the house. Upon being asked why he was running away the boy said Jordan threatened to kill him. As they approached Jordan's house the latter went around the house. Bryant went to the front door, and when Jordan appeared he remonstrated with him. Finally as Bryant partially entered the door witness heard gunshot and saw Bryant stagger. Bryant then ran the distance of the porch, after which he returned to the door and entered the room, when witness heard another shot. Witness could not understand a word Jordan said to Bryant. There was no obstruction between witness and Bryant up to the time of the first shot; Bryant had not drawn or attempted to draw his pistol up to the time Jordan shot; he drew his pistol after the gun fired. Cross examination of the witness failed to budge him from his direct testimony.

Dr. Hodges Sworn.

Dr. B. C. Hodges was sworn for the State. Witness was physician and surgeon; he first saw body of deceased at Jordan's home; saw single barrel shot gun and 32 calibre pistol lying near dead man; did not examine weapons to see if they were loaded. Dr. Hodges then described the wound which caused Bryant's death, the wound being just above the heart and about the size of a silver dollar; in opinion of witness the infliction of such a wound would instantly knock a man down. There were blood stains all up and down the front porch and in the doorway; a pistol ball went through the inside of the wall of the room. Pistol was about eight feet from dead man and shot gun about three feet from him.

S. P. Thomas was next sworn for State. Stated he knew defendant and saw him on day of killing, and that he took the prisoner into custody. Mr. Thomas stated that when he arrived at the scene he found a partly loaded pistol and an empty shot gun. On cross-examination witness stated it was about five or ten minutes after killing before he arrived at the scene.

Byron Rivers

was next sworn. He testified that he was behind the school house in High Springs the day of the killing and heard the shots; went to Mr. Jordan's house and a little girl told him that Mr. Bryant came to arrest her father and that her father shot him.

Nolan West was next called for the State, and stated that he lived in High Springs, and related about the same as last witness.

stated that he knew both parties and was at Jordan's house last December, one year ago, when Bryant arrested Jordan. Counsel for defense objected, but objection was overruled. Bryant was attempting to lock Jordan up and Jordan said that he would kill Bryant if he put him in jail. Witness stated upon cross-examination that he had seen both parties in High Springs since.

M. L. Setzer.

was next called. Stated that he was in High Springs on the day of the killing and saw deceased send Mr. Jordan home. Bryant did not arrest Jordan. Witness said that Bryant told Jordan that if he would go home he would pay his hack fare. Defendant said he would go. Witness said he thought Jordan was drinking.

A. E. Summers.

was next called and stated that as undertaker he prepared Bryant's body for burial. Saw stains in the hall of the house and on the front porch. Stains appeared to be fresh. Said that quite a crowd was present when he arrived.

The State here rested, but withdrew its announcement and S. P. Thomas was recalled. Witness stated that Mr. Bryant had loaned him his pistol on several occasions, and that one chamber of the pistol was always empty; said that pistol might have been loaded all around at the time of the difficulty.

was recalled and stated he gave Bryant the pistol and he knew that it was Bryant's habit to carry his pistol with one chamber empty, but he did not know if the chamber was empty the day of the killing.

State rested and court took a short recess.

Defendant on Stand.

Duncan Jordan was called in his own behalf. Said that on day of killing he was informed of some threats that Mr. Bryant had made against him. Said he got in buggy Bryant had procured and went home. He saw Mr. Dodge's team coming and turned and went into his house and walked out on his front porch. Saw Bryant jump over his fence and come towards him. Bryant looked wild. He went in the house and asked Bryant what he wanted. Bryant replied "you." Said Bryant broke open door, drew his gun and fired, grazing his (Jordan's) neck. He had previously secured his own gun and fired about the same time Bryant did. Bryant turned and then come back back at him. He caught Bryant's pistol and in the struggle it went off. Bryant fell and the pistol fell with him. He surrendered to the officers. They walked on down town and had his hand dressed and he was afterwards locked up, and later brought to Gainesville. Said Mr. Bryant seemed to have had a grudge against him because he would not sign Bryant's petition for him to run for marshal on the independent ticket. Witness had

SINGING OF "DIXIE" WAS SIGNAL FOR OLD YELL

Flower Parade Proves Day's Feature of the Confederate Veterans' Reunion at Memphis.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 9.—From songs of war, from tap of drum and shrill scream of life, from martial uniforms and accoutrements of battle, the scene in Memphis changed yesterday afternoon at the Confederate reunion to dainty femininity in Paris gowns and flowers.

The beautiful flower parade was a delightful transition and it appealed not only to the visitors, but to the veterans as well. Over a hundred stylish equipages, decorated with the most exquisite blossoms of the Southland and carrying the flower and beauty of Southern womanhood, passed slowly through the city streets for nearly three hours. Every imaginable design was carried out. Every possible color combination was developed and at the side of each carriage rode two or more society men, wearing the colors of the ladies, whose escorts they were. Interspersed in the line were twenty bands of music.

One of the pretty features of the parade was a guard of honor of one hundred old Confederate officers mounted and at each officer's side, attired in snow white, rode a young girl. The parade followed the close of the afternoon session of the reunion at which Gen. Theodore S. Garnett of Norfolk and Col. Louis Guion of New Orleans were the essential speakers.

Fight for Next Reunion.

After the parade, the veterans and sons of the veterans jointly met to honor the women of the Confederacy and inspect designs in bronze for State monuments in their honor.

Earlier in the day the sons of veterans completed their organization and listened to addresses by Governor Sanders of Louisiana and Governor Noel of Mississippi.

After the reception to the women of the Confederacy last night there was an informal dance to the sponsors and maids of honor at the Tri-

State Club. The fight for the next reunion reached an interesting state.

Nashville and Chattanooga, Tenn., Mobile, Ala., and Houston, Tex., are the main contenders. The Texas town seems to have a complete organization and the entire city is placarded with signs bearing the State "Houston in 1910." The other cities are not asleep, however, and the prediction is that only the final casting of the ballot will reveal the name of the winner.

The heat was intense and the humidity great. As a result there were a score or more of prostrations—two fatal—most of the victims being the old men in gray. The promise from the weather bureau for cooler weather, if realized, will be welcomed by everyone.

The Singing of Dixie.

Immediately before Governor Patterson spoke in the convention hall, Mrs. June Edwards of Norfolk, Va., commander-in-chief of the choir, sang "Dixie." This sweet faced young woman, with a voice of wondrous charm, carrying in her hand the silken banner of the Lost Cause, gilded to the speaker's stand. In her trim uniform of gray, wearing the three stars of a colonel, she stood a moment, and then before she could give the signal to the orchestra nearly every man on the stage stood up. Heels clicked together with military precision and hands rose sharply to forehead in military salute.

But it was when her fresh, sweet voice trilled out the words of the famous old battle hymn that the big demonstration of the reunion broke out. As the last words died away there was one of the old yells that fairly split the atmosphere. Men threw their hats in the air, hugged one another and more than one of them broke into tears which they made no attempt to hide. The convention was a sea of waving stars and bars and the music of the band was drowned by the cheers.

Three-Cornered Fight Interrupts Trial's Progress

ATLANTA, June 9.—Interrupting the progress of a case on trial, a rattling three-cornered fight took place yesterday in the court room of Justice of the Peace Edgar Orr between Dr. E. C. Cartledge and W. S. McNeal and his son, W. S. McNeal, Jr.

The men fought for some time and it took Judge Orr and all his bailiffs to separate them. Fists and chairs were used in the onslaught. Bailiff Tucker, in attempting to quell the af-ray, received a smart whack over the head.

After the participants had circled about the room several times—a lively mixup of arms, legs and descending blows—they were finally subdued, whereupon Judge Orr directed that all of them be committed to jail for contempt of court. But they all offered apologies to the court and were allowed to go with fines of $1 each.

Tennessee Minister Marries Five Couples at One Time

BRISTOL, Tenn., June 9.—Rev. A. H. Burroughs of this city yesterday, with a single ceremony, joined in marriage five young couples who eloped to Bristol from points in Virginia. The five brides, each attired in white, had left their respective homes ostensibly to attend commencement at Emory and Henry College at Emory, Va.

All the couples arrived on the same train. This ceremony brings Rev. Mr. Burroughs' record up to nearly 3,000 couples and he claims the world's record for marriage ceremonies.

Officers Arrest Chief of Deadly Mafia-Like Gang

CINCINNATI, O., June 9.—United States postoffice inspectors from Cincinnati believe they have discovered the headquarters of the "black hand" in this country, at Marion, Ohio. This belief is based on documentary evidence found when Sam Lima of Marion, Ohio, Antonio Vicario of Columbus, Ohio, and A. Marfis of Dennison, Ohio, were arrested yesterday.

Arrests are said to have been made also in Pittsburg, Pa., and inspectors left for Bellefontaine to make several more there.

Inspector Oldfield states that when the whole story is known the country will be astounded.

The arrests were made simultaneously in the three towns after a search of six months for the men who sent threatening letters to John Amicon, a fruit dealer of Columbus, Ohio, demanding that $15,000 be paid in Pittsburg. The handwriting in the letters to Amicon is identical with that in the letters received by Antonio Bizzo, a fruit dealer of Cincinnati, who died several weeks ago after refusing to obey the demand of a "black hand" letter to pay $1,000 or forfeit his life. He died after eating a banana given him by a stranger.

A dispatch from Marion states that Joseph Rizzi was also arrested in that city. The postoffice inspectors say they have discovered evidence showing that Marion is the headquarters of all of the black hand societies of the country and they allege that Samuel Lima is the head of the organization. Contents of the safe in the Rizzi store bear them out in this assertion they say. They say they found that hundreds of business men in all parts of the State had been paying tribute to the gang.

OPENING SESSION PHARMACEUTICAL ASSOCIATION

Mayor Davis Delivers Address of Welcome, Which Was Followed by Presidents' Address.

The State Pharmaceutical Association, one of the most important of the State, is now in session in Gainesville and the city has been practically "turned over" to them by Mayor Davis.

The membership of this organization numbers three hundred or more of the leading professional men of the State and it is an honor to the city that they selected this as their meeting point, and every citizen should see that they are royally entertained that they may depart with the best of feeling and a hearty good word for the University City.

Address of Welcome.

The morning session, which convened at 9:30, was called to order by the President, W. S. Oppenheimer of Tampa, and following a short routine of business, Hon. Horatio Davis, mayor of the city, delivered the address of welcome as follows:

"Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Florida Pharmaceutical Association: As Mayor of Gainesville it gives me pleasure to welcome you to our city. It gives me pleasure, for go where you will in this State, and in every city, town and village, you will find, almost invariably, the druggist to be a man of character and standing, and this can be truthfully said of a very few professions or businesses.

"Your profession is an ancient one, for in the excavation of a city destroyed by a volcano before the birth of our Saviour a drug store was found, but I doubt if you of the present day would consider it an up-to-date drug store, for the accounts of such excavation do not tell us that it contained patent medicines warranted to make a new crop of hair grow on bald pates or to restore the eyesight or to make an old man step about like a two-year-old colt.

"I can remember when the doctors carried their drug stores with them—the country doctor in a saddle-bag thrown across his saddle and the city doctor in a six-by-ten-inch satchel, and it was wonderful what cures those old doctors made with their saddle-bag and satchel drug-stores. Those were days of calomel, blue mass, salts and quinine, and how those old practitioners used to shovel these medicines into a patient! In those days if a medicine didn't make the patient deathly sick it was 'no good.' It is hard for us who lived in those times to have much faith in bird shot tablets and pleasant tasting castor oil. It is said that medicines are now made so palatable that a sick person yearns for it and that boys will gladly take it, provided it keeps them from school.

"Of course a profession that stands as high as yours must expect some good-natured bantering. Sometime ago a man was appointed the administrator of an estate in this county and afterwards he was asked if the estate was solvent and answered that he could not tell as the doctor and the druggist had not sent in their bills. Even members of the legal profession have been charged with extortion. But we know, as Shakespeare says, that though chaste as ice and pure as snow we shall not escape calumny.

"But joking aside, we are glad to entertain you. What would a town be without a druggist? How could a man get a cigar on Sunday where the Sunday law is enforced if it were not for the drug store?

"As gentlemen and worthy citizens of our great State, and in the name of the people of this city, I again welcome you to Gainesville."

President Oppenheimer's Address.

"Fellow Members of the Florida State Pharmaceutical Association: Another year has past, and we meet again in this beautiful little city of Gainesville. I hope that each one of you have brought a feeling of good will, of good fellowship, and that we will make this convention the happiest and most profitable of all meetings. I am not here to make a flowery and lengthy speech—a busy druggist, as you know, has very little time to study oratory or eloquence—but I wish you to bring some helpful ideas and thoughts to make our business more successful.

"Along all lines are we progressing and developing new ideas and thoughts. In this march of progress we must join and bring all our energies to bear on the question in hand.

"How are we to succeed? Success means work, for it comes only to those who deserve it and who work for it, and especially to those who say 'I will achieve' where others have failed. Everybody makes mistakes, but mistakes sometimes add to success. Let us not brood over the mistakes we make, but let us press onward with renewed determination.

"To be successful financially the pharmacist should be a gentleman under all conditions—thoughtful, tactful, neat, accurate, accommodating, and a good salesman—he should meet the prospective customer with a smile and a feeling of good-will, thus creating an atmosphere of good-will and harmony.

"Courtesy under all conditions is the one most essential requirement to success in business of any kind, but more so with the drug business, where we come in contact mostly with lady customers, who can and do appreciate politeness and attention. We should not forget the traveling salesman.

"'Opportunity knocks once,' so the poet said, but I say that opportunity knocks daily and at all doors—not to me alone, nor to you alone, comes the invitation to success—it is universal. That we do not grasp it, 'tis our fault, not as some would think, our misfortune. In every business, in every vocation, in all branches of industry, opportunity stands ready and waiting.

"There is not a calling in the world that does not offer untutilized opportunity. When you tell me a man is a 'failure' I can answer with a reason, he has a fatal habit, one many of us have contracted, that of 'knocking opportunity.' There is nothing ahead in his line of business—he will have to get out of it. Now it is different with the wholesale hardware trade as many can do something in that. He must make a change, he knocks his present opportunity and gets in the hardware trade.

"A few months later you will meet him again. 'How's business?' 'Rotten,' he says. But then there is nothing in the hardware business—it's killed deadlier than a doornail, conditions have changed so much of late years that there's nothing left of what used to be a 'rousing good business' to be in. He knocks opportunity, and makes another change, and so it goes. There is absolutely no business in the world which has not something ahead—for the man who knows how to go after it.

"Now bring your gaze back home and see if you can't hear opportunity knock, and don't knock back, and never say 'There is nothing in this line, I have gone as far as I can ever go in this, I want to get into the business where there is some opportunity,' for I tell you, if you can't find opportunity where you are you will not grasp it in other environments.

"Take a fresh start, open your eyes, look about you, say 'Let there be light' and there will be light, and stop knocking.

"This is the eve of organization. We do not go on the old principal—every man for himself—but are joining forces, interchanging ideas, and building up our trade, in a way, thereby creating more business to divide amongst our competitors and ourselves.

"It is my earnest desire that we gather our forces together to accomplish the results for which our association has been organized.

"Let us not take up these matters in a halfway, halfhearted manner, but get out of it all there is to be had. No business enterprise would prosper if managed in the half-hearted manner that State association affairs are usually managed. Good things have to be pushed to make them go. So let us each take a personal interest in its welfare, securing new members, attending meetings, and doing good for the association.

"It's my opinion that we should have a badge, as a symbol of our association, wearing it at all times. I would suggest a committee being appointed for this purpose.

"I should think a vote of thanks should be extended to the gentlemen who compose the Board of Pharmacy, and who worked so hard for the passage of the pharmacy bill which recently went through, and with which all of you are no doubt familiar.

"I trust you have all something good to say and I am heartily in favor of the workings of the N. A. R. D. of which I am a member, and I hope that everyone present here is also a member of this grand organization, which has done so much for the retail drug business.

"And now, in closing, I thank you for the honor conferred upon me for the past year, and sorry that the work I have been able to accomplish has been so limited, and trust the coming year will have something good for each and everyone."

The Reception.

The reception given the druggists at 11 a. m. was largely attended and many of the ladies of Gainesville were out to welcome them, afterwards enjoying a little impromptu dance in the large room of the Elks building.

Before adjournment of the morning session, Photographer Smith was called into service and a snap-shot was taken of all the members present.

Afternoon Session.

The afternoon session was devoted to the regular routine business and also considering a large number of applications to the association, which is now larger and better than ever before in its history.

A very interesting little talk was delivered by Dr. Elkins, who will make an address before the association at their morning session today.

By far one of the most enjoyable features of the gathering was the banquet, which was served at the White House last night, something like 100 plates being served.

Great preparations had been made by Manager Murray and he looked after his guests in a manner that would have done credit to any hotel. Following is the menu:

S.S.S. HEALS SORES AND ULCERS

S. S. S. heals Sores and Ulcers in the very simplest way. It just goes right down into the blood and removes the cause, and the place is bound to heal because the impurities and morbid matters which have been the means of keeping the ulcer open are no longer absorbed from the blood. External applications of salves, lotions, plasters, etc., can never produce a cure because they do not reach the source of the trouble. At best they can only allay pain or reduce inflammation; such treatment is working on symptoms and not reaching the cause. Every nutritive corpuscle in the blood is weakened or infected, they cannot nourish the fibrous tissue around the place, but instead they constantly discharge into the flesh around the sore a quantity of impure, germ-laden matter which gradually eats into the surrounding healthy tissue and causes the ulcer to enlarge. Since impure blood is responsible for Sores and Ulcers, a medicine that can purify the blood is the only hope of a cure. S. S. S. has long been recognized as the greatest of all blood purifiers, possessing the qualities necessary to remove every impurity from the blood. While curing the sore or ulcer S. S. S. brings about a healthy condition of the flesh by supplying it with rich, healthy blood, and thus makes the cure permanent and lasting. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free to all who write.

WEAVER'S BUILDING HAS BEEN STARTED

THE EXCAVATION WORK ABOUT COMPLETED.

The Large New Laundry Will Contain
Every Facility for Proper Handling of Work.

Work has commenced on the large new laundry building for S. O. Weaver on West Liberty street and will be rushed to completion as fast as the concrete can "cure."

All the excavation work has been completed and by the latter part of the week the concrete foundation will have been placed in the ground, and the building begin to assume proportions.

This structure is being built by V. R. Thomas especially for the use of Mr. Weaver as a laundry building and it will be arranged to suit his requirements.

The new machinery ordered for the building is expected here by the time the work is completed and will be installed that he may get down to business without further delay, as the loss of his old plant has proved a great hardship upon him.

With everything new and machinery of the latest improved manufacture, he will be better prepared to handle the business in future. He is installing a plant that will meet the growing demands of Gainesville.

PART OF CLOTHES RECOVERED.

One of the Freight Hands of Seaboard Depot Buys Stolen Coat.

Part of the stolen goods from the pressing shop were located Wednesday, at the Seaboard depot, one of the hands having bought a coat from a strange darkey who stated that he was "short of funds" and wanted the money to get off to Jacksonville. The bargain being a good one, he readily borrowed the money and paid for the coat, but later in the day reported the matter to the authorities, and the owner of the shop at once identified it.

The negro from whom the coat was purchased left on the Seaboard train and it is supposed he went to Jacksonville.

A SQUARE DEAL AND A SQUARE MEAL

Here's a square deal for the people who can't eat a square meal without after pain and distress.

Go to J. W. McCollum & Co's. today and get a box of Mi-o-na tablets: the great prescription for indigestion and stomach troubles.

Take one, or if your suffering is intense, two tablets with or after meals and at the end of 10 days if you can't eat a square meal without distress go to J. W. McCollum & Co's. and get your money back.

That's where the square deal comes in.

But Mi-o-na is really a stomach up-builder of great merit; every day the makers receive more than a dozen letters from grateful people which state that after they had lost all hope Mi-o-na cured.

The quick and positive action of Mi-o-na on the stomach in case of gas, water-brash, sour stomach and heartburn is worth a lot of money to any sufferer.

Why not try Mi-o-na at J. W. McCollum & Co's. risk. Fifty cents buys a large box.

E. D. Howe, Gardner, Mass., says: "I suffered from severe pains in my stomach. I tried different remedies without relief; after using two boxes of Mi-o-na I found myself completely cured."

Mi-o-na is sold by leading druggists everywhere.

HYOMEI

Cures catarrh or money back. Just breathe it in. Complete outfit, including inhaler $1. Extra bottles 50c. Druggists.

Better Not Get Dyspepsia

If you can help it. Kodol prevents Dyspepsia, by effectually helping Nature to Relieve Indigestion. But don't trifle with Indigestion.

A great many people who have trifled with indigestion, have been sorry for it—when nervous or chronic dyspepsia resulted, and they have not been able to cure it. Use Kodol and prevent having Dyspepsia.

Everyone is subject to indigestion. Stomach derangement follows stomach abuse, just as naturally and just as surely as a sound and healthy stomach results upon the taking of Kodol.

When you experience sourness of stomach, belching of gas and nauseating fluid, bloated sensation, gnawing pain in the pit of the stomach, heart burn (so-called), diarrhoea, headaches, dullness or chronic tired feeling—you need Kodol. And then the quicker you take Kodol—the better. Eat what you want, let Kodol digest it.

Ordinary pepsin "dyspepsia tablets," physics, etc., are not likely to be of much benefit to you, in digestive ailments. Pepsin is only a partial digester—and physics are not digesters at all.

Kodol is a perfect digester. If you could see Kodol digesting every particle of food, of all kinds, in the glass test-tubes in our laboratories, you would know this just as well as we do.

Nature and Kodol will always cure a sick stomach—but in order to be cured, the stomach must rest. That is what Kodol does—rests the stomach, while the stomach gets well. Just as simple as A, B, C.

Our Guarantee

Go to your druggist today and get a dollar bottle. Then after you have used the entire contents of the bottle if you can honestly say, that it has not done you any good, return the bottle to the druggist and he will refund your money without question or delay. We will then pay the druggist for the bottle. Don't hesitate, all druggists know that our guarantee is good. This offer applies to the large bottle only and to but one in a family. The large bottle contains 2 1/2 times as much as the fifty cent bottle.

Kodol is prepared at the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

TELEPHONE TALKS

The Long Distance System

One of the most valuable features of our service, to our subscribers and to the public generally, is our connection with the extensive long distance lines of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and the other associated Bell Telephone companies.

We own thousands of miles of long distance lines in the seven States in which we operate and in addition can connect any telephone in our system with lines extending to any other city in which a Bell Telephone system is operated.

These long distance lines are of the most modern and improved construction and are maintained at a high state of efficiency. The Bell systems, operating in various sections of the country, are uniform in their equipment and in their methods of operating.

Only by reason of this close traffic arrangement between the Bell Telephone companies is it possible to go to a Bell Telephone almost anywhere, ask for "Long Distance" and be put in communication with almost any point in the country.

This vast network of wires, radiating throughout the nation, is used daily in commerce and for social purposes by the banker, the farmer and citizens in all walks of life and our plant here is an important link in this great chain.

MUSIC AND FRIENDSHIP.

In these days of disturbances in the near East, the more than possibility of war between Germany and Great Britain, and the strengthening of armies and navies, it is refreshing to learn of something tangible being done to promote harmony and peace among nations.

Chicago is the scene of this effort, music is the instrument, and the actors are representatives of the sturdy, intelligent and peace and home-loving Scandinavian race. It is but some three years since Norway separated from Sweden, and although it was peacefully consummated yet the tension was great. To dispel feelings of estrangement and suspicion and to promote a better understanding between the people of Denmark, Norway and Sweden is the object of the musical society which in Chicago has so recently given, and with great success, the Scandinavian Harmony Festival.

That the movement originates among private citizens and in America instead of by the Scandinavian governments does not lessen its importance. Rather does it increase it, because no one can doubt its sincerity. Then, too, this concerted action is bound to have a wholesome influence upon the three countries concerned.

Identity of race and religion, a close affinity in language and customs and political considerations should make the movement a success. The relation of Denmark, Norway and Sweden with their powerful and aggressive neighbors demands a united Scandinavia.

If the example thus set would only be followed in other quarters and by other nationalities it would go a long way to making war an impossibility.

Judge F. J. Titcomb of Dunnellon claims to be the youngest soldier in the Confederate service during the Civil War. Writing of him Editor Bittinger of The Ocala Star says: "The judge is said to be the youngest soldier in the Confederate service. He did gallant service in the arsenal at Savannah when only 11 years and eight months old, in 1862, and remained at it all through the war and was present and helped to load the ferry in Savannah just before Sherman's army crossed over into the city on Christmas day, 1864. If there were any younger soldiers who did actual service for the cause, we have not heard of them. He was also present in the spring of 1862, when Gen. Gilmore of the Union forces bombarded and took Fort Pulaski, a scene this writer also saw and participated in. We went through the big gap made by the shot of Gilmore's guns."

Editor Oliver J. Farmer of The Bronson Times-Democrat hands out this bit of sarcasm relative to the Florida Railroad Commission: "In further extending the powers of the Railroad Commission the Legislature neglected to put the changes of the moon under the control of that autocratic body. Perhaps it is just as well, as that might have called for another $7,000 appropriation."

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

When Secretary Seward negotiated the purchase of Alaska from Russia most people thought of it very much as Louis XV of France thought of Canada—that it was a "few arpents of snow." Political considerations mainly influenced both America and Russia in the matter and but few thought that the country would ever be of commercial value. But the discovery of gold and fuller knowledge have proved that the climate conditions, at least in some sections, were more favorable than supposed and the natural resources of immense value. The exposition now open in Seattle will still further reveal the possibilities of Alaska and the development that has already taken place.

President Taft did the right thing the other night in leaving a theatre on account of a salacious play that was being given. How far, if at all, theatre managers will take the rebuke to heart is uncertain. Probably not to any extent if they find that immoral or suggestive plays are popular. The majority of managers are governed more by financial reasons than artistic, and the question they ask themselves is, "Will it pay?" But every decent, thoughtful man and woman will approve the President's action, and it ought to do something to swell the rising tide of protest against plays that corrupt and all manner of demoralizing shows.

APPEARING OLD

Acts as a Bar to Profitable Employment.

You cannot afford to grow old. In these days of strenuous competition it is necessary to maintain, as long as possible, one's youthful appearance. It is impossible to do this without retaining a luxuriant growth of hair. The presence of Dandruff indicates the presence of a burrowing germ which lives and thrives on the roots of the hair until it causes total baldness. Newbro's Herpicide is the only known destroyer of this pest, and it is as effective as it is delightful to use. Herpicide makes an elegant hair dressing as well as Dandruff cure. Accept no substitute—there is none. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. J. S. Bodiford & Co., Special Agents.

GAINESVILLE, FLORIDA

FLORIDA TROOPS IN CAMP AT BLACK POINT

CAMP BRYAN, June 9.—After a strenuous day of preparation, the First Brigade of Florida State Troops is comfortably housed under snowy canvas at the Black Point military reservation overlooking the picturesque St. Johns river.

The first day was uneventful from a military exercise point, as the various companies and detachments comprising the two infantry regiments were arriving throughout the day from their respective home stations, consequently the work consisted of "getting things in shape" for the days of camp life which are to follow.

The quartermaster and commissary departments were early on the ground and they have been the busiest people in Camp Bryan. The first infantry is encamped in a beautiful grove of live oaks, some distance back from the river, while the second infantry is located near the landing. Brigade headquarters has the most picturesque place in the entire reservation here. A magnificent, broad view of the river can be seen from a high bluff.

The camp is beautifully laid out, and covers an immense acreage. Each regiment of infantry has individual parade grounds. The parades are destined to be popular institutions with the people. The river steamer "Frederick DeBarry" will make regular trips between Jacksonville and Black Point, leaving the city in the afternoon at such an hour as to give those making the trip an opportunity of witnessing the interesting ceremony.

Beginning this morning with reveille, the regular routine of camp life was taken up. A very interesting program of exercises has been planned by the commanding general, covering the eight days of camp.

The war department has detailed Capt. Charles L. McKain and Lieut. Charles H. Danforth of the Seventeenth Infantry, United States Army, as instructors for the camp, and the indications are that the troops will be greatly benefited by this tour of field duty at Black Point.

A Domestic Hen.

Joe Jefferson used to tell this one: "In the spring of 1892, being in the vicinity of West-Swaney, N. H., I drove over to call on my old friend, Den Thompson. It happened that I called at an inopportune time, as the women folk were housecleaning. In fact, I noticed as I drove up to the house that the clotheslines in the yard back of the house were laden with carpets.

"Den was very anxious that I should look over his prize fowl, in which he took especial pride. We went out into the big yard back of the house. As Den was pointing out to me his favorites we noticed one old hen going through some queer antics. She was pecking away at something on the ground, lifting it in her bill and dropping it again.

"What's the matter with the old Biddy, anyway, Den? I asked.

"Den was silent for a minute, then drawled out:

"Well, you see, Joe, as she's a rather domestic sort of hen I callate the old girl must be getting ready to lay a carpet."—New York Telegraph.

Daintiness in Dough.

A west side family that abhors all products of the bakeryshop advertised for a maid of all work.

"Can you make bread?" was the question put to each applicant.

Of all the maids who professed to own that accomplishment the mistress chose the one with the frailest hands and arms.

"I don't know about the wisdom of that choice," ventured a male member of the family. "Wouldn't it have been better to pick out a sturdier girl?"

"Not at all," said the lady. "What we require in this family, above all things, is good bread. We half live on bread. I am confident I have chosen a good breadmaker. A girl with rather delicate hands always makes better bread than one whose fists are like sledge hammers. Bread to be good needs to be coddled in the kneading. The light fingered do that instinctively, but the heavy handed slam and bang the very life out of the dough."—New York Globe.

It is related that once a German American, growing more and more afflicted with extreme nervousness, got the impression that he was forgetting English. The impression got so strong that he refused to talk anything but German. Then he became convinced that he was forgetting that, closed up like an oyster and was led away to a sanitarium, where he spent his days in complete silence.

A course of treatment was prescribed for him in which baths played an important part. Every morning the dumb German American was thrown bodily into a tub filled with very hot water, allowed to remain there awhile and then hauled out and set to cool on the piazza.

But once the sanitarium acquired a new attendant who got his signals mixed. He was told to bathe the German American. Filling a tub with ice cold water, he threw the patient into it.

"You —! You confounded —!" roared the dumb man, beside himself with fury. "You —!" Then he switched to German. "Du versuchter Esel! Du —!"

The doctors pronounced him cured, and he left the sanitarium the next day.—Philadelphia Ledger.

How Alexander Untied the Knot.

By Herbert Kaufman.

Alexander the Great was being shown the Gordian Knot. "It can't be untied," they told him; "every man who tried to do it fell down."

But Alexander was not discouraged because the rest had flunked. He simply realized that he would have to go at it in a different way. And instead of wasting time with his fingers he drew his sword and slashed it apart.

Every day a great business general is shown some knot which has proven too much for his competitors, and he succeeds because he finds a way to cut it. The fumbler has no show so long as there is a brother merchant who doesn't waste time trying to accomplish the impossible—who takes lessons from the failures about him and avoids the methods which were their downfall.

The knottiest problems in trade are:

- 1—The problem of location.
- 2—The problem of getting the crowds.
- 3—The problem of keeping the crowds.
- 4—The problem of minimizing fixed expenses.
- 5—The problem of creating a valuable good will.

None of these knots is going to be untied by fumbling fingers. They are too complicated. They're all involved together—twisted and entangled over and about each other—so intertwined that they can't be solved singly—like the Gordian Knot they must be cut through at one stroke. And you can't cut the knot with any sword except the newspaper—because:

- 1—A store that is constantly before the people makes its own neighborhood.
- 2—Crowds can be brought from anywhere by daily advertising.
- 3—Customers can always be held by inducements.
- 4—Fixed expenses can only be reduced by increasing the volume of sales.
- 5—Good will can only be created through publicity.

Advertising is breeding new giants every year and making them more powerful every hour. Publicity is the sustaining food of a powerful store and the only strengthening nourishment for a weak one. The retailer who delays his entry into advertising must pay the penalty of his procrastination by facing more giant competitors as every month of opportunity slips by.

Personal ability as a close purchaser and as a clever seller doesn't count for a hang so long as other men are equally well posted and wear the sword of publicity to boot. They are able to tie your business into constantly closer knots, while you cannot retaliate because there is no knot which their advertising cannot cut for them.

Yesterday you lost a customer—today they took one—tomorrow they'll get another. You cannot cope with their competition because you haven't the weapon with which to oppose it. You can't untie your Gordian Knot because it can't be untied—you've got to cut it.

You must become an advertiser or you must pay the penalty of incompetence.

You not only require the newspaper to fight for a more hopeful tomorrow, but to keep today's situation from becoming hopeless.

"That Which Is Worth Having Is Worth Advertising For"

The old adage that what is worth having is worth asking for is still true—true of the more intricate life of today.

The thing you want—whether it is a used piano or a home, whether it is a ready-made business or a lost pocket-book—is obtained readily through advertising, and with difficulty, or not at all, through other means.

GAINESVILLE, —THE— University City.

Gainesville is conceded to be the most enterprising as well as the most beautiful city in the interior of Florida. It is located in the very center of the State, half way between the Atlantic and Gulf Coasts, surrounded by lands of such fertility as to be capable of producing a great variety of crops; in the heart of the truck-growing, phosphate and naval stores belt. She has the best educational advantages in the State, good churches, with edifices which are superior to any town of its size in Florida, with large and consistent congregations; has a climate which cannot be excelled for health and pleasure. JORDAN GUILTY OF MURDER IN SECOND DEGREE

Three Sessions of Court Held Yesterday, and Case Given to Jury at 9:50 O'Clock Last Night.

Circuit Court was called to order at 8:30 Wednesday morning, Judge Wills on the bench.

Sheriff Ramsey made the following return of the special venire of thirty from which to select a jury of twelve to try the case of the State vs. Duncan Jordan, charged with the murder of Geo. L. Bryant, marshal of High Springs:

H. G. Kennard, W. S. McDowell, E. Baird, J. B. Brooks, C. M. Dell, O. B. Bailey, N. R. Carter, C. Y. Crawford, C. V. McKinstry, John Howard, James Guinn, P. Dampier, Rube Hague, L. C. Hague, T. E. Brown, R. C. Small, J. H. Standley, S. B. Cullen, L. V. Polk, J. A. Williams, S. J. Ellis, Rufus Dell, R. A. Caswell, W. M. Thomas, J. S. Goode, J. A. Beal, B. P. Beville, L. C. Ellis, D. A. Robertson, A. W. Taylor.

Messrs. Kennard, Crawford, McKinstry, Dampier and L. C. Ellis were excused by the court.

The work of empanelling the jury was then begun. Nine of the regular panel qualified. The panel was frequently completed by twelve men taking their seats in the box, but challenges by both sides necessitated the calling of additional veniremen until the special venire was exhausted with only eleven jurors in the box. At this time the defense had exhausted its ten challenges, while the State had three of its ten challenges left.

The court then ordered the sheriff to summon ten additional veniremen from the body of the county, returnable instantly. Return of this venire was not forthcoming up to the noon hour and court adjourned until 2 o'clock.

Afternoon Session.

When court was called to order at 2 o'clock Sheriff Ramsey made the following return of the special venire of ten:

J. S. Broome, W. M. Pepper, W. S. Dorsey, E. Baird, W. H. Tison, F. T. Douglass, F. T. McCormick, S. M. Davis, J. L. Chesser.

The jury was finally completed and sworn as follows, both the State and defense having exhausted all peremptory challenges:

W. S. Turner, W. R. Smith, T. J. McKinney, John Howard, Rube Hague,

L. C. Hague, D. A. Robertson, A. W. Taylor, J. S. Broome, W. M. Pepper, C. I. Baird, C. J. Mixson.

Miss Lois Hale, official court stenographer, was called upon to take down the evidence.

The First Witness.

F. W. Dodge was sworn for the State. Witness on December 3, 1908, let Mr. Bryant, the murdered man, have a buggy to send Duncan Jordan home in. Considerable time lapsed and witness and Bryant went to see why Jordan had kept the team so long. As they got near Jordan's home they saw the negro boy who had driven Jordan home running from the house. Upon being asked why he was running away the boy said Jordan threatened to kill him. As they approached Jordan's house the latter went around the house. Bryant went to the front door, and when Jordan appeared he remonstrated with him. Finally as Bryant partially entered the door witness heard gunshot and saw Bryant stagger. Bryant then ran the distance of the porch, after which he returned to the door and entered the room, when witness heard another shot. Witness could not understand a word Jordan said to Bryant. There was no obstruction between witness and Bryant up to the time of the first shot; Bryant had not drawn or attempted to draw his pistol up to the time Jordan shot; he drew his pistol after the gun fired. Cross examination of the witness failed to budge him from his direct testimony.

Dr. Hodges Sworn.

Dr. B. C. Hodges was sworn for the State. Witness was physician and surgeon; he first saw body of deceased at Jordan's home; saw single barrel shot gun and 32 calibre pistol lying near dead man; did not examine weapons to see if they were loaded. Dr. Hodges then described the wound which caused Bryant's death, the wound being just above the heart and about the size of a silver dollar; in opinion of witness the infliction of such a wound would instantly knock a man down. There were blood stains all up and down the front porch and in the doorway; a pistol ball went through the inside of the wall of the room. Pistol was about eight feet from dead man and shot gun about three feet from him.

S. P. Thomas was next sworn for State. Stated he knew defendant and saw him on day of killing, and that he took the prisoner into custody. Mr. Thomas stated that when he arrived at the scene he found a partly loaded pistol and an empty shot gun. On cross-examination witness stated it was about five or ten minutes after killing before he arrived at the scene.

Byron Rivers

was next sworn. He testified that he was behind the school house in High Springs the day of the killing and heard the shots; went to Mr. Jordan's house and a little girl told him that Mr. Bryant came to arrest her father and that her father shot him.

Nolan West was next called for the State, and stated that he lived in High Springs, and related about the same as last witness.

stated that he knew both parties and was at Jordan's house last December, one year ago, when Bryant arrested Jordan. Counsel for defense objected, but objection was overruled. Bryant was attempting to lock Jordan up and Jordan said that he would kill Bryant if he put him in jail. Witness stated upon cross-examination that he had seen both parties in High Springs since.

H. L. Setzer.

was next called. Stated that he was in High Springs on the day of the killing and saw deceased send Mr. Jordan home. Bryant did not arrest Jordan. Witness said that Bryant told Jordan that if he would go home he would pay his back fare. Defendant said he would go. Witness said he thought Jordan was drinking.

A. E. Summers

was next called and stated that as undertaker he prepared Bryant's body for burial. Saw stains in the hall of the house and on the front porch. Stains appeared to be fresh. Said that quite a crowd was present when he arrived.

The State here rested, but withdrew its announcement and S. P. Thomas was recalled. Witness stated that Mr. Bryant had loaned him his pistol on several occasions, and that one chamber of the pistol was always empty; said that pistol might have been loaded all around at the time of the difficulty.

was recalled and stated he gave Bryant the pistol and he knew that it was Bryant's habit to carry his pistol with one chamber empty, but he did not know if the chamber was empty the day of the killing.

State rested and court took a short recess.

Defendant on Stand.

Duncan Jordan was called in his own behalf. Said that on day of killing he was informed of some threats that Mr. Bryant had made against him. Said he got in buggy Bryant had procured and went home. He saw Mr. Dodge's team coming and turned and went into his house and walked out on his front porch. Saw Bryant jump over his fence and come towards him. Bryant looked wild. He went in the house and asked Bryant what he wanted. Bryant replied "you." Said Bryant broke open door, drew his gun and fired, grazing his (Jordan's) neck. He had previously secured his own gun and fired about the same time Bryant did. Bryant turned and then came back at him. He caught Bryant's pistol and in the struggle it went off. Bryant fell and the pistol fell with him. He surrendered to the officers. They walked on down town and had his hand dressed and he was afterwards locked up, and later brought to Gainesville. Said Mr. Bryant seemed to have had a grudge against him because he would not sign Bryant's petition for him to run for marshal on the independent ticket. Witness had

SINGING OF "DIXIE" WAS SIGNAL FOR OLD YELL

Flower Parade Proves Day's Feature of the Confederate Veterans' Reunion at Memphis.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 9.—From songs of war, from tap of drum and shrill scream of life, from martial uniforms and accoutrements of battle, the scene in Memphis changed yesterday afternoon at the Confederate reunion to dainty femininity in Paris gowns and flowers.

The beautiful flower parade was a delightful transition and it appealed not only to the visitors, but to the veterans as well. Over a hundred stylish equipages, decorated with the most exquisite blossoms of the Southland and carrying the flower and beauty of Southern womanhood, passed slowly through the city streets for nearly three hours. Every imaginable design was carried out. Every possible color combination was developed and at the side of each carriage rode two or more society men, wearing the colors of the ladies, whose escorts they were. Interspersed in the line were twenty bands of music.

One of the pretty features of the parade was a guard of honor of one hundred old Confederate officers mounted and at each officer's side, attired in snow white, rode a young girl. The parade followed the close of the afternoon session of the reunion at which Gen. Theodore S. Garnett of Norfolk and Col. Louis Guion of New Orleans were the essential speakers.

Fight for Next Reunion.

After the parade, the veterans and sons of the veterans jointly met to honor the women of the Confederacy and inspect designs in bronze for State monuments in their honor.

Earlier in the day the sons of veterans completed their organization and listened to addresses by Governor Sanders of Louisiana and Governor Noel of Mississippi.

After the reception to the women of the Confederacy last night there was an informal dance to the sponsors and maids of honor at the Tri-

State Club. The fight for the next reunion reached an interesting state.

Nashville and Chattanooga, Tenn., Mobile, Ala., and Houston, Tex., are the main contenders. The Texas town seems to have a complete organization and the entire city is placarded with signs bearing the State "Houston in 1910." The other cities are not asleep, however, and the prediction is that only the final casting of the ballot will reveal the name of the winner.

The heat was intense and the humidity great. As a result there were a score or more of prostrations—two fatal—most of the victims being the old men in gray. The promise from the weather bureau for cooler weather, if realized, will be welcomed by everyone.

The Singing of Dixie.

Immediately before Governor Patterson spoke in the convention hall, Mrs. June Edwards of Norfolk, Va., commander-in-chief of the choir, sang "Dixie." This sweet faced young woman, with a voice of wondrous charm, carrying in her hand the silken banner of the Lost Cause, gilded to the speaker's stand. In her trim uniform of gray, wearing the three stars of a colonel, she stood a moment, and then before she could give the signal to the orchestra nearly every man on the stage stood up. Heels clicked together with military precision and hands rose sharply to forehead in military salute.

But it was when her fresh, sweet voice trilled out the words of the famous old battle hymn that the big demonstration of the reunion broke out. As the last words died away there was one of the old yells that fairly split the atmosphere. Men threw their hats in the air, hugged one another and more than one of them broke into tears which they made no attempt to hide. The convention was a sea of waving stars and bars and the music of the band was drowned by the cheers.

Three-Cornered Fight Interrupts Trial's Progress

ATLANTA, June 9.—Interrupting the progress of a case on trial, a rattling three-cornered fight took place yesterday in the court room of Justice of the Peace Edgar Orr between Dr. E. C. Cartledge and W. S. McNeal and his son, W. S. McNeal, Jr.

The men fought for some time and it took Judge Orr and all his bailiffs to separate them. Fists and chairs were used in the onslaught. Bailiff Tucker, in attempting to quell the affray, received a smart whack over the head.

After the participants had circled about the room several times—a lively mixup of arms, legs and descending blows—they were finally subdued, whereupon Judge Orr directed that all of them be committed to jail for contempt of court. But they all offered apologies to the court and were allowed to go with fines of $1 each.

Tennessee Minister Marries Five Couples at One Time

BRISTOL, Tenn., June 9.—Rev. A. H. Burroughs of this city yesterday, with a single ceremony, joined in marriage five young couples who eloped to Bristol from points in Virginia. The five brides, each attired in white, had left their respective homes ostensibly to attend commencement at Emory and Henry College at Emory, Va.

All the couples arrived on the same train. This ceremony brings Rev. Mr. Burroughs' record up to nearly 3,000 couples and he claims the world's record for marriage ceremonies.

Change of Venue For Kelley and Davidson

Circuit Court met Tuesday morning pursuant to adjournment of Monday, Judge Wills presiding.

At the conclusion of taking evidence in the case of the A. C. L. vs. the Melton Lumber Co., action to compel a locomotive, argument in the case was deferred until the afternoon session.

The case of the State vs. D. M. Davidson and James Kelley, murder, was called and change of venue granted to Putnam county. The case will be tried in Palatka on June 21.

Rosa Lismore, colored, charged with grand larceny, plead guilty to petit larceny, which plea was accepted by the State. This is the case where a whole week's washing of clothes belonging to F. M. Prewitt and family was stolen. Olitha Lismore, husband of Rosa, is yet to be tried upon the same charge.

The case of Duncan Jordan, charged with the murder of Geo. L. Bryant, marshal of High Springs, was set for 8:30 Wednesday morning, at which time a special venire of thirty is returnable from which to select a jury. Judge Syd L. Carter and Col. B. A. Thrasher are counsel for Jordan.

Afternoon Session.

At the afternoon session the case of the A. C. L. vs. the Melton Lumber Co. was resumed, argument in the case being made by Judge Horatio Davis and Col. Christopher Matheson for defendant, while Col. R. A. Burford closed for plaintiff. Judge Wills charged the jury as to the law in the case, after which the six men retired for a few moments and returned a verdict for the defendant. Col. Burford gave notice of a motion for a new trial.

Court then adjourned until 8:30 Wednesday morning.

SPRING TERM COURT IS AGAIN IN SESSION

KELLEY-DAVIDSON MURDER CASE WAS FIRST ONE CALLED.

Order Will Probably Be Made in Case
Today—A. C. L. vs. Melton Lumber Company on Trial.

Circuit Court reconvened for the spring term at 2 o'clock Monday, Judge Willis presiding. Solicitor Rivers, Clerk Wienges and Sheriff Ramsey and his deputies were also in their respective places. Among the visiting attorneys present were Cols. Thos. Palmer of Tampa, J. N. Stripling of Jacksonville and R. A. Burford of Ocala.

The venire of twelve jurors for the week answered for their names as follows: J. K. Feaster, A. O. Thigpin, J. L. Stokes, W. S. Turner, O. L. Feaster, W. R. Smith, J. E. Thrasher, S. R. Chitty, W. E. English, T. J. McKinney, J. P. Bradshaw, J. G. Beville.

Messrs. Thrasher, Chitty and English were excused by the court.

State Attorney Rivers announced ready in the case of the commonwealth vs. James Kelley and D. M. Davidson, charged with the murder of R. O. Sellers at High Springs, and the State's witnesses were called and answered to their names. The prisoners were then brought into court and retired to one of the ante rooms for consultation with their counsel.

The case of the A. C. L. vs. the Melton Lumber Co., replevin of a locomotive, was called. Judge Horatio Davis and Col. C. Matheson appeared as counsel for defendant, and Cols. R. A. Burford and C. R. Layton represented the plaintiff. The following jury was sworn in the case: O. A. Thigpin, W. S. Turner, W. R. Smith, T. J. McKinney, J. P. Bradshaw, J. G. Beville.

The case was not concluded last night, the court adjourning until 9 o'clock this morning.

It is probable that some order will be made in the Kelley-Davidson case today, and it was reported last night that defendants would make application for a change of venue.

Men Past Fifty in Danger.

Men past middle life have found comfort and relief in Foley's Kidney Remedy, especially for enlarged prostate gland, which is very common among elderly men. L. E. Morris, Dexter, Ky., writes: "Up to a year ago my father suffered from kidney and bladder trouble and several physicians pronounced it enlargement of the prostate gland and advised an operation. On account of his age we were afraid he could not stand it and I recommended Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the first bottle relieved him, and after taking the second bottle he was no longer troubled with this complaint." DONEGAN-GEIGER.

WALDO, June 7.—One of the most charming June weddings occurred in the M. E. church on June 1st at 3:30 o'clock.

The bride, Miss Belle Geiger, looked a dream of white in her mercerized silk, trimmed in broad satin bretelles, which were fastened with large rosettes at the semi-princess waist line, and extended to the bottom of the soft folds of her skirt. She wore a beautiful white hat made of silver straw, trimmed in lilies of the valley around the crown, an attractive satin bow fastening a large willow plume which hung gracefully to one side, touching the bride's shoulder. She carried a handsome bouquet of bride's roses fastened together with a sweeping bow of satin. Lilies of the valley were entwined among the roses, drooping gracefully by bows of faint ribbon.

The groom wore handsome black broad cloth with white borcade vest. Everyone agreed that the bride and groom looked lovely.

The church was magnificently decorated in white and pink with green for a background. There was a profusion of ferns and palms. At the altar were three arches; the majestic central arch was covered with white oleanders and magnolias, and suspended from the center hung a large white fly, under which the bride and groom stood. Under each side arch, decorated in white and pink cut flowers, stood the maid of honor and the best man.

The piano was bedded in a pyramid of blue hydrangeas. Miss Hicks, who played the wedding march, was dressed in sky blue silk. Just before the bridal party entered Miss Poole sang, "O Promise Me." She was attired in a silk pongee with a touch of blue on her frock. Immediately after the solo Rev. T. L. Z. Barr was ushered in. The ushers, Messrs. Vance Winter and Hoyt Simms, spread a white carpet down the aisle.

The bridal party entered preceded by the ribbon carriers, Parke Winter and Aubrey Cone, who carried a large bunch of white satin ribbon, white and pink flowers knotted at every few inches. Following these were the flower girls, Mamie Lou Tillis and Alene Kramer, making a very pretty picture in their white embroidery hats.

The bride entered on the arm of the maid of honor, Miss Bessie Graham, who carried the white satin prayer book, very gracefully handing it to the Rev. Barr. The groom, Mr. Ed. Donegan, accompanied by his best man, Mr. John Ambrose, met the bride at the altar.

The gifts to the bridal pair were numerous and costly. There were thirty-nine pieces of cut glass, eighty pieces of linen, one hundred pieces of fine china, including a Japanese dinner set, a full set of silverware, consisting of knives, forks and eight sets of spoons, seventeen odd forks and spoons, a handsome carving set, besides silver nut bowl and cake plate, bread tray, etc. There were three hundred and fifty presents in all.

We hope their life will be as full of good things as their bridal days have been. They departed on the afternoon train for points in Indiana, where they will visit relatives of the groom and take in Chicago, Indianapolis and other cities, making a tour of two weeks, and will return to live in Waldo. One of the largest crowds at the church and at the train ever seen on a similar occasion showed the popularity of the young couple.

MET HORRIBLE DEATH ON SATURDAY NIGHT

YOUNG WHITE MAN MANGLED BY LOG TRAIN AT KOMOKO.

Entire Log Train Passed Over His Form Before Train Crew Could Take Him Out.

George M. Brock, a young white man employed as flagman on the log train from Newberry to Jacksonville, met a most horrible death on Saturday night.

From what can be learned it is supposed that he was endeavoring to cross from one car to another when he slipped and fell, the train of cars passing over his form, mangling and bruising him so badly that he died a short while afterward.

As soon as the accident was learned, the train was stopped and the young man was picked up and rushed to Newberry, but he expired within a short while and before physicians could render him much assistance.

The accident occurred near Komoko station Saturday night.

Another Report.

The Times-Union of Monday has the following to say of the accident:

"George M. Brock, one of the most popular young flagmen employed by the Atlantic Coast Line railroad, running between Jacksonville and Newberry on a freight train, was horribly injured near Newberry about 9:30 o'clock Saturday night and was taken to Newberry, where he died at 2:30 o'clock yesterday morning.

"The exact cause of the accident could not be ascertained, but it was while Mr. Brock was about his duties as flagman that he was caught under the caboose of his train, being badly mangled. His fellow workmen, hearing his cries, rushed to his assistance and he was placed aboard the train and rushed to Newberry for medical attention.

"Although everything possible was done for the injured man, he sank rapidly, passing away yesterday morning.

"His father, Mr. George W. Brock, who is a conductor on the same division of the Atlantic Coast Line, and who resides at 756 West Monroe street, was notified of the accident and left immediately for Newberry.

"The body was brought to the city on a special train yesterday afternoon, being met by Undertaker William C. Cooper, Jr., who will have charge of the funeral arrangements.

"George Brock was a popular young man, well liked by his fellow trainmen and by a large circle of friends in Jacksonville and at Newberry.

"The body will be shipped tonight to Atlanta, where the interment will take place."

$100 Reward, $100.

THOMAS PREPARING FOR WINTER TRAVEL

WILL MAKE CHASE PLACE ANNEX
TO THE WHITE HOUSE.

Large Campus Now Being Arranged for Guests' Comfort and Pleasure the Coming Season.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

Major Thomas is already making arrangements for the tourist travel that he says Gainesville must have the coming season.

Since purchasing the C. W. Chase property he has begun to improve and finish the many houses, and the large building that was started as Mr. Chase's private home is being finished with a view to making it an annex to the White House.

Major Thomas states that he will have the building put in first-class condition and outside of three rooms which he will reserve for his family the remainder will be used for the accommodation of winter guests. He proposes to make of it a place not excelled in any interior city in the State.

Work has already commenced on the campus, which will be dotted with swings, hammocks, chairs and benches, affording a place for rest and recreation and a great convenience to his trade.

That Gainesville will be classed as a tourist city, there is no further doubt in Major Thomas' mind, and he purposes to exert his every influence to make it such. Aside from the preparations that he will make to entertain them, some effort should be made to have a hard road built to a suitable point on the lake that visitors might have a place to go and fish if they desire. This could be done, and would not only be a great pleasure to the citizens, but would add greatly to the attractions for the visitors, for no prettier body of water is to be found near any inland city.

Major Thomas has no doubt about inducing tourists to stop here and is already getting out extensive advertising matter which he will send to all sections of the Northern and Western territory.

Tom Boulware at Ocala.

Tom Boulware of Gainesville, Alachua county, and a member of Stone-wall Camp, who attended the Second Brigade Reunion in Ocala, is one of the sons that suffered the ravages of war. His parents lived near Hawthorn, and when the Federal forces invaded Florida and purposed taking Gainesville, his mother had him mount a two-year-old colt and make a night ride to Gainesville and inform Capt. Dickerson of the Federal advance and position, their destroying the gin house and all its contents, eighteen bales of ginned cotton and whatever other property the invaders could lay their hands on at the Boulware plantation. The commander of the Federals insisting on knowing where Mrs. Boulware's husband was, she replied, "you will hear from him at sunrise," and sure enough, her fourteen-year-old son having notified Capt. Dickerson at Gainesville, that "Gray Fox" was there, at sunrise routed the enemy and struck consternation into their ranks and cleared the country of them. Tom Boulware from then on fought through the war and would be fighting yet if he had his way.—Ocala Star, 4th.

TORE HIS SKIN OFF IN SHREDS

Itching was Intense—Humor Spread

—Disease Resisted Treatment

BUT CUTICURA CURED HIM IN THREE WEEKS

"My trouble commenced about two years ago, and consisted, at first, of an eruption of small pustules on my hands. These spread later to other parts of my body, and the itching at times was intense, so much so that I literally tore the skin off in shreds in seeking relief. The awful itching interfered with my work considerably, and also kept me awake nights. I tried several doctors and used a number of different ointments and lotions but received practically no benefit. Finally I settled down to the use of Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Resolvent Pills, with the result that in a few days all itching had ceased and in about three weeks' time all traces of my eruption had disappeared. I have had no trouble of this kind since. H. A. Krutakoff, 5714 Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill., November 18 and 25, 1907."

MELROSE, June 7.—The wedding of Miss Fannie L. Mizelle to Mr. M. P. Hunt of Jasper is announced to take place at the Melrose Baptist church on June 23rd at 11 a. m. Friends are cordially invited.

The eclipse on Thursday night was rather a failure from a view point, the clouds obscuring the moon until nearly the end.

The many friends of Albert Goodson were sorry to learn that he had to return home from Holland on account of illness. The fever has taken a serious turn and a trained nurse from Jacksonville is now in charge by order of the Melrose Lodge, W. O. W. Dr. Fed Roux of Gainesville is here visiting Dr. W. H. Lee.

The first watermelon and roasting ears made their appearance on the market Saturday and found a ready sale.

H. Sutton, age 75, died after a long illness on Wednesday, the funeral taking place on Thursday morning, Rev. Barr preaching the sermon.

Miss L. Mack has returned from teaching the summer school at Highland. The Melrose citizens are glad to learn that she and her sister have again been appointed to teach here during the winter term, having been so successful last term.

MARSHAL ARNOW HAS CLOSE TIME SUNDAY

BIG NEGRO RESISTED ARREST AND FOUGHT THE OFFICER.

Mayor Davis Gave Him $25 and Costs or Sixty Days on the City Streets.

Marshal Arnow had rather a narrow escape on Sunday evening while arresting one Irvine Anderson, a negro carpenter, who was of the opinion that he could master the marshal.

The negro was drunk in Frog Alley and the marshal instructed him to go home and behave himself, when the impudent man stated that he would do as he pleased and that no white man could arrest him, using very vile language toward the officer.

Marshal Arnow at once went for him, but Anderson being twice his size and a good man physically, struck at him, inflicting some bruises besides sinking his teeth in the officer's right arm, in which he held his pistol. They were on the ground, where the officer had him securely so he could do nothing, when he called to a bystander to assist him or he would be compelled to shoot the negro.

Mayor Davis dressed the would-be bully off Monday morning with $25 and costs or sixty days on the streets.

Will Keith, a negro who is known to work little, was let off with $3.25 for disorderly conduct.

Mi-o-na, the faultless prescription, stops sour stomach, belching of gas, distress after eating, heartburn, biliousness and nervousness.

It is well worth a trial by any reader of The Sun who suffers from any stomach disturbance. It contains ingredients that not only give relief but that act on the stomach so beneficially that in a short time the flabby, tired out walls of the stomach regain their strength and activity and can perfectly digest any kind of food without aid.

Try Mi-o-na for a week: misery will change to happiness; despair to hope, dull eyes to bright and you will yourself wonder why you suffered so long with such a remarkable prescription at hand.

Senator Gore of Oklahoma has demonstrated the fact that all right people are not "blind."

It begins to look as if realized prospects of good crops will restore business activity in spite of the tariff furore at Washington.

Hon. Fred M. Hudson, President of the Senate during the past sixty days' session of the Legislature, was absolutely fair in all his rulings.

The most commendable act of the late Legislature was recorded when the body voted to adjourn sine die. But be it remembered that this was compulsory.

There is at least one man in Columbia county who cannot forgive Gainesville for being the successful competitor in the contest for the location of the University of Florida.

Hon. Lon L. Farris, Speaker of the House, is not likely to cross swords with Frank Clark, for the latter's seat in Congress. The people of the Second District do not want a man as their representative who does not know his own mind.

The people are criticizing the Legislature for having done nothing during the past sixty days' session. This criticism is nothing, however, compared to the "cussing" the members would have had administered to them had some of the pending bills been enacted into law.

It is probable that Governor Gilchrist will do all in his power to ferret out the men who lynched the negro murderer of Sheriff Langston at Tallahassee on last Sunday morning. The death warrant had been signed by Governor Gilchrist, and the negro would have been legally hanged next Friday.

Hon. J. D. Watkins, Dr. H. L. Montgomery and C. E. Melton, the committee from Micanopy who visited Tallahassee during the recent session of the Legislature in behalf of the passage of a bill calculated to give their town better railroad facilities, demonstrated that they knew how to accomplish results.

The subscription list of The Tallahassee Sun is now larger than at any time during the twenty-seven years of its publication, and it is steadily increasing. More people are now also reading The Daily Sun than at any previous time. Over one thousand new subscribers have been added since December 15, 1908. Can any other paper in the Interior make a better showing?

Among the first Florida girls to enjoy the privileges of woman's suffrage are Misses Maude and Vivian Roberts of Key West. They went out to Golden, Colorado, to pay a long visit to their brother, Julian Roberts, and while there qualified as electors and cast their votes in an election, the campaign for which was quite exciting. The young ladies are quite proud of their unique experience and their letters home have caused quite a flutter of excitement in Key West.—Times-Union Short Talks.

THREE STUDY IN THE SCHOOLS.

Teachers throughout the country have been invited by the United States Forester to co-operate with the Forest Service in an effort to obtain more definite knowledge of the characteristics of the most important forest trees of the United States. To do this it will be necessary to obtain a large number of volunteer observers who will collect material on the time of leafing, blossoming and fruiting of the various kinds of forest trees. In this letter inviting the co-operation of the teachers, Forester Pinchot says:

"Knowledge of this kind is greatly needed and will be of value from the standpoint of both education and of practical forestry. For educational purposes the results obtained for each species, averaged and presented graphically by means of colored charts, will be available to all who are interested in the subject, and particularly to schools. They will form valuable aids to nature study.

"Children can readily be interested in the actual work of obtaining records. This should form an attractive outdoor feature of the school work that should serve to develop the faculty of accurate observation, and at the same time to promote an interest in forestry which may lead to a better appreciation of its aims and methods. It may also prove to be a profitable addition to botany courses for older students.

"A study of this kind will be of great value to practical forestry, since the proper treatment of forests depends partly upon a knowledge of these characteristics of trees. For example, the time of year at which a tree leafs out and blossoms is one of the indications as to whether or not it is frost-hardy in a given region, and the length of time that a tree is in leaf influences the growth it is able to make during the season. Knowledge of the time when seeds of each species ripen in various localities is of great value to those who are collecting seed, since seed often deteriorates or is eaten by squirrels and birds if not gathered and stored as soon as ripe.

"Another result of this study will be a more intimate knowledge of climate as manifested by plant growth, for differences in climate are shown by plant life as well as by instruments, and a preliminary idea can thus be gained as to whether a given region is suited to a valuable tree which it is desired to introduce there. Many such examples could be given, but sufficient has been said to show that the results of these observations will be a real help to practical forestry, in addition to their general interest and educational value. Volunteers will later be supplied with publications and charts containing the information they help to gather, as a return for the services rendered."

On request, the Forest Service will be glad to send forms upon which to record data and a pamphlet containing full instructions as to the nature of the observations and how they are to be made.

THREE MONTHS OF TAFT.

President Taft has now occupied the White House a little over three months, and the first months of the new administration have brought to the business world just what it anticipated—a period free from convulsions, excitements and strenuous policies. The country is enjoying an administration that means recuperation and a "let-us-alone" policy. It has had enough of reforms for the time being. It wants to adjust itself to the policies which Taft's predecessor has bequeathed. This does not mean that Taft will sit idle and be a quiet onlooker. He will act when the time comes, but only when grave abuses clamor for a remedy. He evidently prefers to be a conservator than a pathfinder. His character is that of the quiet judicial administrator of the trust placed in his hands. It cannot, however, be said that the stormy administration of his predecessor has not resulted in good for the country. It has infused the nation with a higher standard of business ethics, and the preservation of these will mean a new era of healthy progress and lasting achievements.

The Sun will publish the new pension law just as soon as a certified copy can be obtained. The old law will be published at the same time, so as to show the difference in the provisions of the two acts.

For Coughs—Take This

Do you know a remedy for coughs and colds nearly seventy years old? There is one—Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Once in the family, it stays. It is not a doctor, does not take the place of a doctor. It is a doctor's aid. Made for the treatment of all throat and lung troubles. Ask your own doctor his opinion of it. Follow his advice. No alcohol in this cough medicine. J.C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

You cannot recover promptly if your bowels are constipated. Ayer's Pills are gently laxative, act directly on the liver. Sold for nearly sixty years. Ask your doctor all about them.

OLLIE JAMES.

It will be remembered that during the early part of the session of the Legislature Hon. Frank Clark was invited to address the House in reply to a resolution of censure of himself introduced by Hon. James E. Alexander on account of Mr. Clark having said in a speech in Congress that William Jennings Bryan's leadership had brought only disaster to the Democratic party. In support of his resolution Mr. Alexander read a speech of Hon. Ollie James of Kentucky laudatory of Col. Bryan, and in the course of his remarks to the Legislature Mr. Clark paid his respects to Ollie James as follows:

"I understand that there was a speech read here the other day, made by my friend, Ollie James. Did you ever see Ollie?"

"Some of you who were at the Denver convention saw Ollie. He is a broad, elegant, large, fine gentleman. He is a little over six feet, weighs probably 225 to 230 pounds. He is a tremendous physical success. And Ollie's speech was read. Ollie is an enthusiastic follower of the 'peerless,' and let me tell you what his leadership, and those like him, has done in Kentucky."

"Kentucky, from my earliest recollection, has ever been a Democratic State—as safely Democratic as Georgia or Texas. No other State in the Union was safer, and yet under the leadership of Ollie James and his associates they have tonight four Republican representatives in Congress, a Republican Governor sits in the State House at Frankfort, and a Republican Senator sits in the Senate chamber in Washington and answers to the name of Kentucky. That's Mr. Bryan's leadership. That's the leadership of Mr. James."

A JUST COMPLAINT.

Complaint is made of the reckless driving of automobiles in various sections of the county, and especially of the speed at which some machines are run between Gainesville and Micanopy. Care should be taken by drivers of these machines to give the proper signal and slow down speed when rounding a curve or climbing a hill, as it is dangerous to pedestrians and occupants of vehicles drawn by horses not to observe these rules. Many people are becoming incensed at the recklessness with which some owners of automobiles speed their machines on the public highways, and we would not be surprised at the news of a serious tragedy resulting from such recklessness. Don't forget, Mr. Automobilist, that other people have some rights on the public highways, as well as yourself.

There will never be a reapportionment of representation in the Legislature based upon population, as required by the Constitution, until a Constitutional Convention is called—unless some method is devised to compel members to comply with the Constitution. Representatives from counties like Hamilton, Bradford, Nassau, Suwannee, Madison, Jefferson, Leon, Santa Rosa, and others of not half the population of Alachua, but which have the same representation in the Legislature, will never vote for a reapportionment based upon population. They have the power to prevent such reapportionment, and they have never failed to exercise such power, irrespective of the direct command of the Constitution.

Professor Shelton Phillips of Levy county was not slow to let it be known that the first man who talked about "running him out of Tallahassee" would have to be carried out. The Professor is made of the right stuff.

"Women, mind your own affairs," advises Mrs. Hetty Green. And they will, too, provided they can get through with their neighbors' in time.

HER FIRST ELEVATOR RIDE PROVES HER LAST

NEW YORK, June 8.—On her first visit to New York and her first ride in an elevator, Miss Lena Schoonmaker, 19 years old, one of a sight-seeing party, was crushed to death yesterday afternoon when her head was caught between the floor of the elevator and the sixth floor of the Flatiron building. The party was being chaperoned by Mrs. Charles M. Hall, daughter of Judge Alton B. Parker.

When four of the girls started to descend in the elevator, Lena fell forward in a faint, her head near the door of the car. The car stopped, but started up again. The head of the girl rolled over the edge of the car and the protruding ledge of the floor caught and crushed her skull, broke her neck and crushed in her chest. She died instantly.

The elevator boy was placed under arrest on a technical charge of homicide.

HIGH SPRINGS NOTES.

Social and Personal Happenings From That Busy Town.

HIGH SPRINGS, June 8.—The entertainment given by the Pythian Sisters of Mizpah Lodge No. 13 to the Knights and their friends last week was a charming success. After the address of welcome by Mrs. Annie Phifer, M. E. C., a very charming program was efficiently rendered. The band gave three selections, and as this was their first performance in public, it was appreciated. The refreshments consisting of punch and cake were liberally distributed.

E. B. Godwin received a painful hurt Saturday by falling from a flight of steps. He held little Billie Dow by the hand and in trying to shield him he received the full force of the fall.

Thurston Futch, who has been spending a week at home with his mother, left yesterday for a trip to St. Petersburg.

Mrs. T. F. Cato of Jesup, Ga., is in town visiting relatives.

Mrs. Raymond Futch is spending a week in Jacksonville.

H. B. Foy, Jr., who has recently returned from a trip to Washington, will leave this week to take a position in the A. C. L. offices in Wilmington, N. C.

The union Sunday school picnic to Worthington Springs Friday was a success, in spite of the rain.

Mrs. M. A. Sewell of Lakeland is visiting the family of Mr. R. Higdon, and other friends.

DENIES THE CHARGE.

Owens Claims That He Would Not Attempt to Escape.

R. H. Owens, the condemned man who is now in the county jail, has addressed a communication to The Sun denying the charge that he attempted to escape from prison along with the other men last week.

Following is the letter:

"In God we Trust.

"County Jail.

"I have said ever since I was convicted that I would not try to get away, and I mean just what I said. I will suffer death before I will leave my wife and baby and the only way I will part from them is by being hung. It is a great wrong to say that I was with the men that were trying to get away. I am trusting in My God, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

"R. H. OWENS."

Governor Gilchrist is demonstrating that the people made no mistake in placing the affairs of State in his hands. He has unhesitatingly vetoed such measures as did not meet his approval, and will undoubtedly decline to approve several iniquitous bills which he did not have time to consider prior to adjournment of the Legislature.

FIVE MEN ARE SLAIN BY BLOODTHIRSTY MANIAC

SOMERVILLE, Mass., June 7.—With a maniacal shriek John Murphy turned from pig sticking to man killing in the North Packing and Provision Company's slaughter house Saturday and driving his fellow workmen before him slew five of them and wounded four others. Two of the wounded were reported later as dying. The dead:

Hubert Smith, colored, Cambridge.
James Catre, colored, Cambridge.
Thomas Janicus, Somerville.
Michael Janicus, Somerville.
Unidentified white man.

The wounded: Dr. Daniel C. Hayes, Government Inspector of Waltham; John Cheever, Cambridge; John Patterson, Somerville. Hayes and Janicus were fearfully slashed. According to some of the workmen, Murphy had been acting peculiarly for some days, but he returned from his dinner at noon apparently in normal condition.

Shortly after 2 o'clock he suddenly uttered a blood-curdling scream and sprang at Dr. Hayes, waving his fifteen-inch razor-edge knife in his hand. He cut Dr. Hayes a deep gash on the neck, stabbed him over the heart and practically disemboweled him. The terrified workmen rushed for the door, but Murphy ran after them, slashing right and left. Every man whom he struck went down with a groan. The crowd plunged down stairs with Murphy after them and at every landing he cut somebody. On the second floor one of the workmen, an Italian, seized a heavy bar of iron and felled Murphy, but he was quickly on his feet again and wounded another man.

On the street he was given another heavy blow on the head and his knife was wrenched from his hand. Two police officers came in to assist the workmen and Murphy was given a fearful beating and finally overpowered and taken to the police station. Murphy is 50 years old, weighs 200 pounds and was regarded as one of the strongest men in the plant. He is married and lives in Somerville.

It was reported later that there was very little hope of Dr. Hayes or Cheever surviving.

Husband's Heroic Effort To Save His Wife's Life

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., June 7.—Louis Cohen of Buffalo saw his young wife leap into the swirling river between second and third Sister Islands at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon only 150 feet above the brink of the cataract. Without a moment's hesitation he plunged in and struggled to save her.

She probably died in his arms. Before his cries could bring efficient help an hour had passed, during all of which Cohen was making frantic attempts to reach the shore. The current at this point is about 20 miles an hour. But fortune aided him. With his wife tightly clasped to him he felt himself bump into a grounded tree stump and on this he got a grip with his one free hand. It was nearly an hour after Mrs. Cohen jumped into the river when a police officer, James Martin, arrived with ropes, and Representative James S. Simons and three other men.

Three times they threw the rope before it fell within Cohen's grasp, and then he was too weak to tie it about his own or his wife's waist. The two were twenty feet from shore and it was difficult to make a good cast. Cohen had been unable to keep his wife's face above water.

Once Cohen had hold of the rope the men on shore began to pull. When within fifteen feet of the shore Cohen lost his grip on his wife's body and it was carried down stream and lost to view.

When Cohen got on shore he could not speak for ten minutes. His first words were: "She is out there. Go and get her. She is dead. She died in my arms."

At last two searchers spied Mrs. Cohen's body, held fast by a rock, about 100 feet above the brink. It was with the greatest difficulty that the two men brought the body to land. Life was extinct.

Cohen says that worry over the fact that she was unable to suckle her infant depressed his wife greatly and probably caused her desire for death. He is robust and quickly recovered from the shock of his experience.

HEAVY VOTE POLLED THE PAST FEW DAYS

MISS GUINN OF HAGUE MAKES A BIG JUMP TOWARD TOP.

Miss Rives, Whose Picture Appears, Is Working Hard in Her Section for Votes.

There are practically no changes in the standing of the leaders in the Co-Operative Contest, except that they have increased their vote considerably since the last count, and the "rear" ones are showing great gains. Miss Gertrude Guinn of Hague makes the greatest gain, having secured over 100,000 votes since the last count.

Miss Annie Kirkland of Alachua has sent in a daily club of subscribers and Miss Lorna McCredie of Micanopy sends in two clubs to The Semi-Weekly Sun, which gives these young ladies flattering votes in the contest today. This will also entitle them to have their photos reproduced in these columns.

From this time on the votes will be counted only twice a week, every Wednesday and Saturday morning, unless they become too heavy in the meantime.

Miss Rosa Lee Rives of High Springs has been one of The Sun's valued workers during the contest and Solicit subscriptions during your spare time at home and tell your friends where they can obtain votes, so when they come to the city to do their trading they can assist you in the contest.

The contest is yet young and some of the very bottom ones can secure the top places by a little hard work. Following is the vote as canvassed yesterday:

GAINESVILLE HAS FINE TRAIN SERVICE

Commencing next Monday, Gainesville will be placed on the best schedule she has ever enjoyed from all sections of the county, and the Board of Trade and the merchants should feel highly elated upon having scored this success.

The Citra train, which is run from Citra to High Springs, will hereafter be run from Wilcox through here, and the early Ocala train will be run via Micanopy. In fact nearly everything that was asked for by the Board of Trade has been granted.

The train from the western part of the county will leave there early in the morning and arrive in Gainesville about 8:30 a. m., making the trip on to Citra. Returning, will pass here at 6 p. m. for its western terminus.

The Ocala train will arrive about its usual time but will run via Micanopy, giving the citizens of that place a chance to visit Gainesville without having to take the long drive to Evinston.

The schedule for the new service has not been received, but Superintendent McArthur, who has worked hard to assist the citizens in securing the change, states that the order has been confirmed and the schedule will go into effect next Monday.

been told by Judge Bexley of threats made by Bryant against him.

Upon cross examination said that he was in the habit of leaving his gun most anywhere loaded. Said Mr. Bryant caught hold of the gun barrel before he fired and that Bryant fired first. Witness showed the position that he and deceased were standing in.

One of the jurors (Mr. Pepper) asked Mr. Jordan if he was drunk when the homicide occurred and witness stated that he was not.

was next called for the defense. Witness stated that he lived in High Springs and was acquainted with both parties. That he had a conversation with Bryant in which Bryant said that Jordan was opposing him in his election and he (Bryant) expected he would have serious trouble with him. Also stated Bryant said he expected he would have to kill him before the election.

T. H. Willard was next called and testified that he knew the defendant and was in High Springs the day of the trouble. Saw Mr. Jordan after the occurrence and saw the wound on Jordan's hand.

W. B. Grier was next called for the defense and stated that he knew the defendant and went to Jordan's house about ten minutes after the trouble. Saw a powder stain on defendant's neck and the wound on his hand.

H. C. Cato

was next called and testified about the same as previous witness.

Dr. Hodges was recalled for the State and testified that he knew deceased and saw him on the day of the killing; that he did not know if deceased was drinking or not.

Defense rested. Court adjourned until 7:30 p. m.

Night Session.

Court was called to order at 7:30 o'clock, when counsel began argument.

Judge Syd L. Carter was the first to address the jury, and spoke for about an hour and a quarter for the defense. Attorney Thrasher, who was associated with Judge Carter in the case, did not speak.

Solicitor Rivers consumed about forty-five minutes in presenting the State's case, at the conclusion of which Judge Willis delivered the charge and the jury retired at 9:50 p. m.

At 10:45 the jury had not reached a verdict and court adjourned until 9 o'clock this morning.

At 9 o'clock this morning the jury returned the following verdict:

"We, the jury, find the defendant guilty of murder in the second degree."

"W. M. PEPPER, Foreman."

Veteran Newspaper Man Dies at Age of 81 Years

PHILADELPHIA, June 7.—Col. Alexander K. McClure, prothonetary of the supreme and superior courts of Pennsylvania and for many years a prominent figure in politics and journalism, died Sunday at his home in Wallingford, Delaware county, aged 81 years.

Col. McClure has been suffering from infirmities due to his advanced years for some time. Born in Perry county, Pennsylvania, he became editor of The Juniata Sentinel when only 19 years of age. He first gained political prominence in 1853, when he was nominated and defeated for auditor-general of the Whigs. A member of the Republican convention which nominated Lincoln in 1860, McClure was the one who suggested that the Pennsylvania delegates should break away from Simon Cameron of Pennsylvania and vote for Lincoln. This was done and Lincoln's name stamped the convention. He formed close relations with President Lincoln and his cabinet, and took a prominent part in national politics.

Col. McClure came to Philadelphia more than fifty years ago, where for a time he practiced law. In 1873 he was narrowly defeated for mayor of Philadelphia after a bitter contest. With the late Frank McLaughlin he established The Times and for years wielded a trenchant editorial pen. One of his greatest battles was a crusade against the "Dandy Mayor" William B. Smith. He was for many years president of the Clives Club.

As Result of Hanging Scene Lad Is Now Near to Death

ATLANTA, June 8.—As the result of an attempt on the part of youthful playmates to re-enact a hanging scene witnessed in a moving picture show, Girard Williams, the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Williams, came near to death.

Girard and his brother, two years older, were playing in their grandmother's back yard with one of their little neighbors when the attempt to carry out the hanging scene was made. Girard, being smaller, was selected as the subject and about his slender neck a leather strap was fastened. Girard climbed on top of a

NEGRO IS LYNCHED AT THE STATE CAPITAL

Legislature Had Barely Adjourned When Sheriff Langston's Murder Was Avenged By Public.

TALLAHASSEE, June 7.—Strung to the limb of a majestic oak, within ten yards of the gallows upon which he was to be legally executed next Friday, and almost beneath the shadow of the dome of Florida's capitol, Mick Morris, the negro convicted of the murder of Sheriff Langston, gave up his life to an armed and determined mob of fifteen men Sunday morning at 3 o'clock.

Carefully Planned.

The affair was well planned, and was over in less than ten minutes from the time when Jailer Grey, suddenly surprised, was overpowered and locked in the iron-cage hall containing the cells.

As the negro was given as prompt a trial as Governor Gilchrist could secure for him, and as he had stated to a committee of citizens that the negro's sentence would certainly not be commuted, the lynching is regarded by some as a direct insult to the State's chief executive.

The gallows was already under construction and the negro was to be hanged next Friday.

A rumor which was about town Saturday was to the effect that the negro had gone insane.

Fearing that it was but a ruse, and that it might result in cheating the gallows of him, the mob secretly organized.

Governor Gilchrist will take no action until tomorrow. He will probably delve into it deeply.

The coroner's jury today examined other prisoners, and many witnesses, but could not find a single clue. At 3 o'clock, when the moon was shining brightly, Jailer Grey was awakened, and supposing a prisoner was being brought in, stepped out to open the jail yard gate. He was confronted by over a dozen masked men, armed with rifles. He was overpowered and locked up and Morris secured.

Fought Like Tiger.

The negro did not beg for mercy, but fought like a tiger from the moment his cell was entered.

He was clubbed out in the yard to keep him quiet, and physicians state that this caused his death before the noose circled his throat. He was then strung up.

The mob came to the jail in bugles and hurriedly left. There was no noise aside from the shots, and no disorder. No race feeling has been stirred up, there being as many negroes as white among the curious sightseers yesterday.

Want to be strong?

Eat more Quaker Oats. This advice is coming from all sides as a result of recent experiments on foods to determine which are the best for strength and endurance. It has been proved that eaters of Quaker Oats and such cereals are far superior in strength and endurance to those who rely upon the usual diet of heavy, greasy foods. The Quaker Oats Company is packing Quaker Oats in tins for warm climates. It keeps fresh and sweet indefinitely.

The Best Advice.

If you are about to do something which may cause trouble, ask the advice of a man who has tried it. His advice will be stronger than that of a moralist, and it will be backed by experience.—Aitchison Globe.

PRESSING CLUB IS VISITED BY THIEVES

TAKE ALL OF NEW AND BEST CLOTHING MONDAY NIGHT.

No Clue Has Been Discovered by the Officers as to Who the Guilty Parties Are.

From Wednesday's Daily:

Sneak thieves entered the pressing club of D. F. Frazier, at 107 Garden street, sometime during Monday night and cleaned up his outfit, taking all of the best clothes the assortment contained.

Among the stolen goods were seven full new suits, together with two or more skirts that he had just gotten in from his regular customers, and the loss to him is a very heavy one, for the goods can hardly be replaced satisfactorily.

Marshall Arnow has been notified of the theft and is using his every effort to apprehend the guilty party or parties, but up to a late hour Tuesday evening had not discovered even the slightest trace of the robbery.

Frazier had only been in operation a short while, and was located in the stand formerly run by Mustin.
